Carol Trice Joins Clarocity to Lead Valuation Quality and Audit Division

Carlsbad, California – June 2, 2017 - Clarocity Corporation (TSXV:CLY) (the "Company" or "Clarocity") is pleased to announce that Carol Trice has joined Clarocity as Director of Quality Review Services.

"We are excited to have Carol join our team and expand our footprint in quality and audit solutions," said Shane Copeland, CEO of Clarocity. "Carol is a respected valuation professional with proven experience, who will be responsible for leading our new quality review division. This is a key strategic role designed to ensure that we can accelerate the onboarding of recently announced contracts."

Over two years ago, Clarocity launched AQC, an appraisal compliance and review product currently used by lenders and valuation companies. Based on the success of that product, Clarocity will be launching new review solutions targeting the capital and secondary markets. This initiative will extend into a full audit services division designed to meet the needs for quality and securitization due diligence.

Previously, Ms. Trice served held the role of Vice President at Caliber Home Loans, serving various leading roles including Default Risk Management, Compliance, and Valuations.
